GREAT

Print Design

Our juicy graphic design combined with our lightly fried digital mechanicals. Served loaded.

Business Card - A combination of our design panache and a skewer of fire-roasted industry experience. Announce your arrival with multi-sensory clarity and purpose.

Collateral Material - The challenge of delivering a full course meal of collateral literature, brochures, bulletins, flyers, invitations and displays is one of relating to the "creative window" of other material. We deliver perfectly timed courses fresh, crisp, with special emphasis on quality photography, paper stock, graphics and printing for both traditional and electronic delivery.

Magazine Advertisement - Served with our spirited salsa for increased sales. Each order is to order, design, ad buying, and placement. Perhaps include a side of yellow pages ad!

Consumer Package Design - Made from nutritious, design staples and topped with your choice of condiments. In-season items include, cans, labels, cartons, hologram and shrink wrap.

Catalog & Brochure Development - A grilled design seasoned with zesty photographs, spicy copy on a bed of outrageous functionality. Served with your choice of two side items (service and price).

Welcome to diversified media design inc.!

Award-winning team fulfilling favorites. Meaty production served hot to entice and communicate with your audience and a side of spicy memory re-calling video, music, graphics for dipping.

Digital Content Production

These creations come with your choice of a traditional or high definition audio and video salad and a fresh-baked roll.

NEW Digital Retail Signage

This prime rib is seasoned to perfection and served with new product information, monthly sales specials, employee introductions and customer tips. NOW responsible for an 11% retail increase.

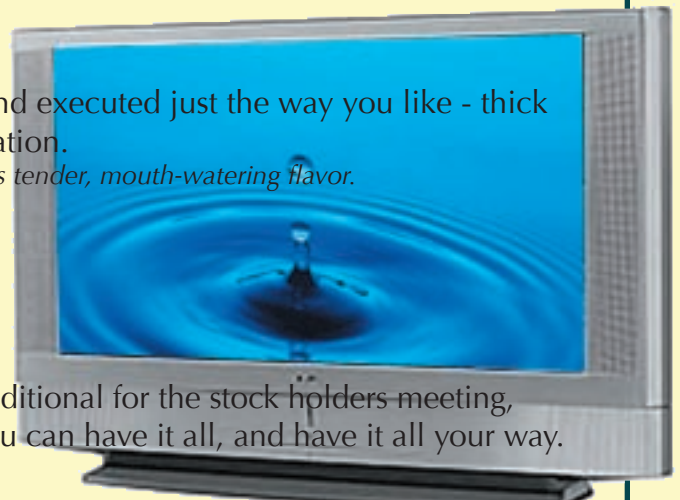

Training and Demonstration Video

Our center cut top sirloin marinated with a secret blend of animation and a hint of top-of-mind information. Served on your choice of medium - video CD, DVD, streamed on the internet.

Promotion and Advertising Video

A rib eye marinated in our sweet statistics ginger sauce and executed just the way you like - thick and juicy. Served with two side items, impact and motivation.

A rib eye cut is known for its heavy fat marbling, the magic behind its tender, mouth-watering flavor.

Digital Content Delivery

A heaping pile of options for getting your message out, traditional for the stock holders meeting, pumped-up for your sales and marketing team. And... you can have it all, and have it all your way.

Broadcast & Cable - A mass-marketing original, taste your service next to your favorite show.

Video CD & DVD - A valued favorite with sales and training professionals. Serve à la mode.

Internet Streaming - This indulgent slice of technology is made with digital multi-media content, drizzled with an amazing diet sauce, sprinkled with powdered sugar and works all day & night.

Interest Group

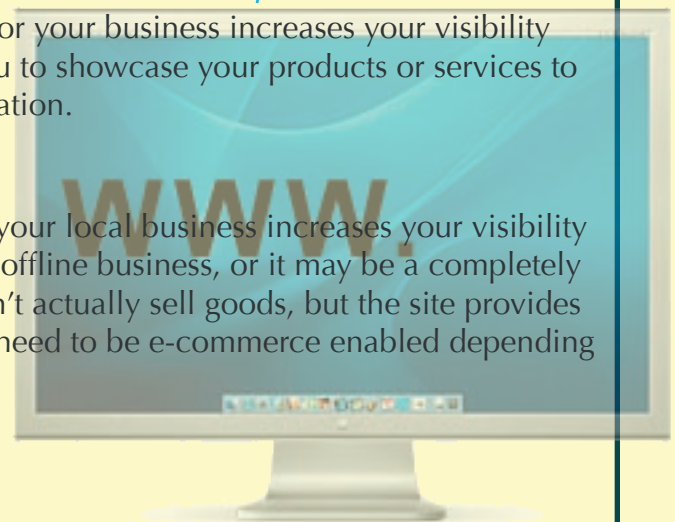

A house favorite. The marketing of your site is not necessary. For an interest group, you may want to try and get your site listed on sites that have related subject matter or local guides' sites. For example, if your site is about a local music group, there maybe local music web sites that you might try to get listed on.

Business Informational

Another house favorite. Having an online presence for your business increases your visibility and professional look. An informational site will allow you to showcase your products or services to prospective clients and allow you to post company information.

Business Selling Having an online presence for your local business increases your visibility and professional look. This type of site may already be an offline business, or it may be a completely online business with a local focus. It may be that you don't actually sell goods, but the site provides a local service and sells advertising locally. Your site may need to be e-commerce enabled depending upon its focus.
